

The School Site Council is a group of school staff and parents who come together to analyze school programs and data for school improvement. The members are elected to the positions within their own representative groups and meet approximately six times a year to create a "Single Plan for Student Achievement" that meets the aforementioned goal. Positions are open annually on the council and elections take place each fall.