Good morning,

I am not a resident of CUSD, but I have taught in the district for many years and have had the privilege of listening and translating at many community meetings in both Big Sur and Cachagua over the years. The two communities strike me as quite different from one another despite both being the outliers in the district; however, I see there are several maps that lump the two communities together.

It is my perspective that Cachagua has far more ties to the Village than to Big Sur, and Big Sur residents have unique issues that define their area. It is my hope that these two quite distinct communities will be acknowledged as such, and will not be bundled together as a monolith for representation.

I deeply appreciate the hard work that has gone into this process and I understand that this is a difficult decision; not everyone will be content with the choice that is made. Thank you all for the effort you have put into making this equitable and acceptable for all.

Sincerely,
Brenda Buran
