2. Introductions

Dan Morgan Principal, Jen Kasper: Assistant Principal, Lovina Worick: PTO President, Jennifer Leighton: Vice-President, Randy Frederick: Treasurer, Sarah Norbraten: Secretary, Loree Doves: Communications,

3. Treasurer's Report

-Randy said income from Halloween Fundraiser is $16,382.96

-Discussion of Holiday Car Parade and prizes

-Little money going out because of Distance Learning

4. Update on Mentor Family Program

-The cookie baskets have been delivered to new CMS families. A parent, Lisa Hanson, on zoom mentioned was nice to receive.

-There have been requests to organize in person with appropriate guidelines.

5. Principal's Report

-Jen Kasper discussed the school safety plan. CMS has been doing monthly drills. CMS was evaluated and the evaluators are highly impressed with the earthquake and fire evacuation drills.

-CMS is preparing for Cohorts and Hybrid. One of many examples is meeting with a sign company to help direct students.

-The waiver discussed during the CUSD board meeting is not for the middle school.

-The survey results regarding Hybrid and Distance Learning are different from the survey given before school started. The results are: Hybrid 265 students, Distance Learning 156 students, no response 115 students and 35 parents wrote in with a response. It is challenging to create groups when some many people have not answered.
