Renaissance Faire News:

Attention 7th Graders- Doth thou like looking one's nose down at thy fellow humans? Doth thou like to scorn thy peers for their sinful ways? Art thou feeling a bit righteous these days? Hath thy other occupational prospects fallen to the wayside? Perchance thou needeth a Renaissance job that requires a stern look and the ability to read religious text with fervor. Search no further. You were born to be a Puritan performer at our faire. Come seek and find what that performing job entails at the meeting in C10 Thursday at lunch with the good Puritan, Mr. Anderson.

Attention Maypole Dancers- The first practice scheduled for Friday hath be postponed in honor of those in need of practice for the Music in the Parks performance on Friday. We shall have our first practice Monday the 16th at 5th period (instead of Friday of the 13th). See thee next week!

8th Graders: Your class Panoramic Picture will be taken today during 5th period! Please report to your 5th period class and wait for the announcement releasing you to have your Class of 2022 photo taken.

Attention all 7th Grade Students: Yesterday, you received your Monterey Bay Outdoor Education permission slips from your science teachers. PLEASE return your permission slips as soon as possible. The deadline is this Friday, May 13th

This Friday at the Carmel High School Theater the student band from the CMS Songwriters Club will join three high school student bands live on stage at the Singer/Songwriters Guild's Band Show! This free show starts at 7pm on Friday May 13th in the Carmel High School Theater. Come on out and cheer on your local student musicians. Hope to see you Friday!

Wiffle Post Season Update: The Krislyn Krill beat the limp LittleTown Lobsters yesterday by a lot to a little. The Lobster's season is now finished, and the Krill play again today against the Guzziberg Gastropods. Thanks to the fans for doing a great job on picking up the litter around the fields!
