Today is our Tuesday Advisory Day!

Please report to your Advisory Class after break for your Team Building activities.

 Happy Tropical Hawaiian Beach Day CMS! After our first day of Spirit Week, the seventh graders are in the lead! It was great seeing so many students in their PJs yesterday. In fact, all three grade levels were pretty close with dress-up participation, but it was the lunchtime activity where the seventh graders were able to rack up the points. They definitely had skill when it came to the popcorn toss. At the moment, seventh graders have 125 points, sixth graders have 111 points, and eighth graders have 90 points. We will see if today's lunchtime hula hoop competition will keep the seventh graders in the lead or if another grade level will take over. Don't forget, each day you have a chance to earn points for your grade level.

- Tomorrow is Decade Day. You can wear attire from the 40's, 50's, 60's, 70's, 80's, or 90's!
- Thursday is Sport your Favorite Sports Team or Sport/Hobby Day.
