Attention Cougars! Tomorrow is our Cougar Pride Spirit Day, but instead of wearing red or Carmel Gear, be sure to wear GREEN in honor of St. Patrick's Day! You will want to leave your green on all day long and head back to CMS from 7:00-8:30 PM for our Spring Dance taking place in the gym. Remember, because of our incredible PTO, admission is free, but you will need your signed Dance Ticket that will be passed out today during fifth period in order to get in. We will have an awesome DJ, a selfie booth, and fake St. Patrick's Day tattoos. Although the dance is free, be sure to bring some money to buy delicious pizza and other yummy treats. We hope to see you there!

Did you sign up for Battle of the Books but no longer plan to participate? Please please please let the librarians know TODAY; so that we can take you off the schedule that will be posted tomorrow. If you still want to be a part of the Battle but find yourself in need of a teammate or two, have no fear, the librarians will find a team for you. Countdown to Battle: 11 days!

Happy Belated Pi Day! Eli David SMASHED the existing record for pi memorization, reciting an incredible 628 digits this past Monday! The pi contest continues today; there are 6 pies for the winning students: one for each of the top three recites, and one for each of three raffle winners. For every 12 digits of pi you recite, you earn a ticket in the raffle. 3.141592653589 is all you need to know to earn a raffle ticket to win a delicious pie!
