"Amazing!" "Brilliant!" "Unbelievable!" The Pi Competition had the highest number of students ever to memorize over 100 digits. First place went to Eli David who recited an astounding 628 digits. Coming in second was Cammie Roxas with an impressive 400 digits. Our third-place winner was Allen Klingl with a fantastic 350 digits. Also memorizing over 100 random digits were Brianna Glass (240), Ashley James (184), Eta Gao (170), Storey Smith (166), and Mathew David (yes, Eli's brother) (144). The top three students each took home a delicious pie. The three pie raffle winners were Ashley James, David Bogart and Mathew David. (Yes, the David family took home two pies!)

Be sure to keep on your GREEN and head back to the CMS Gym from 7:00 - 8:30 for the Spring Dance. We will have an awesome DJ, a selfie booth, and fake tattoos! Although admission is free, be sure to bring money for pizza and treats! You will need your signed Dance Ticket to get in. If you cannot find the one that was passed out yesterday during fifth period, stop by the office for an extra copy. We hope to see you there!
