 Yay! We have some new Environmental Club members and we have a great project planned for this year! Raise money and win prizes while reducing your carbon footprint! We meet on Mondays at lunch in Mrs. Chupka's room D-1. Come to our meeting today to find out more!

7th graders! Did you leave your elephant in Mr. Fosler's room last year? Check the library- it's there waiting for you.

8th graders...Are you interested in the law and how our Constitution works? 8th grade CMS students have been invited to participate in the Constitution Project which is a one day field trip to join other middle schools to investigate and interact with our Constitution. Come to an informational meeting in Miss Carr's Room D-6 on Wednesday at lunch to find out more.

 Good Luck to our Volleyball Teams on their road games today. The girls will head to Sacred Heart Middle School, while the boys battle it out at Palma. Players: Your bus will depart at 3:00. GO COUGARS!

This Club Saves Lives: Want to help stop world hunger? Want to help build wells that provide families in Africa with clean water? Want to change the world?! Come join This Club Saves Lives during their first meeting Thursday, September 20th, and every Thursday thereafter at lunch in Mrs. Williams room C8.

Drama: Tryouts for our fall play, Sleeping Beauty and the Beast, will take place tomorrow, September 18th from 3:00 - 4:30. Call backs will be Wednesday at the same time. This is a silly play open to all students that can make rehearsals every Tuesdays, Wednesday, and Thursday.

 The popular twenty-five cent book sale is back! Books are on sale NOW in the library: 25 cents each or a super bargain at 5 for a dollar!
