It looks like the eighth graders are working really hard to keep their Spirit title! After day one, the eighth graders are in the lead with 227 points! The sixth graders are not too far behind with 198 points. Seventh graders, please remember, you have four more days to add to your 182 points. This is a close race for the Spirit Week title! Today is Hawaiian Day/Tourist Day. Come on out to the main quad to show off your hula hooping skills and earn points for your grade level. Here are the rest of the spirit days:

Tomorrow - Decade Day (20's-90's)

Thursday - Cougar Pride Day - Red and White or Carmel Gear

Friday - Sport Your Favorite Sports Team or Sport Day

 Good Luck to our Volleyball Teams in their away matches at Santa Catalina today. Players: Your bus will depart at 3:00 for your 4:00, 5:00, and 6:00 games.

 Come cheer on our Girls Soccer Team as they take on Buena Vista during their home game today at 4:30! The Boys Soccer Team bus will depart at 3:15 for their 4:30 Buena Vista game.

GO COUGARS!

Drama: Tryouts for our fall play, Sleeping Beauty and the Beast, will take place today after school from 3:00 - 4:30. Call backs will be tomorrow at the same time. This is a silly play open to all students that can make rehearsals every Tuesdays, Wednesday, and Thursday.

7th graders! Did you leave your elephant in Mr. Fosler's room last year? Check the library- it's there waiting for you.

8th graders...Are you interested in the law and how our Constitution works? 8th grade CMS students have been invited to participate in the Constitution Project which is a one day field trip to join other middle schools to investigate and interact with our Constitution. Come to an informational meeting in Miss Carr's Room D-6 tomorrow at lunch to find out more.

 The popular twenty-five cent book sale is back! Books are on sale NOW in the library: 25 cents each or a super bargain at 5 for a dollar!
