Constitution Project Members! Let's meet tomorrow at lunch in D-6! See you there-Miss Carr

Corn Toss Mania: Sadly, not one 7th grader from either Mr. Mayer or Senora Sommer's 1st period classes stepped up to represent the classes in the Corn Toss Tournament which begins next Monday. We are hoping to have a better turn out from Ms.White's 1st period class as they meet at the Corn Toss area during lunch today to determine their class Corn Toss representatives. Good Luck to all contestants as you AIM HIGH!!

Inktober art is on display in the library. Everyone is welcome to stop by and sketch. Today's word is MUDDY.

 VolleyNews: The Carr Pumpkin Smashers beat the Wells Witches, Warlocks, Wizards, and Windex from Wakunda's yesterday by a score of 21-10. Andrew Quezada and Luke Rauh had strong serving games to give the Smashers the edge they needed to pull off the victory. Today, the Mayer/Sommer Las Calabazas Locas will try to have Roman's Sour Patch Kids for lunch!

WiffleNews: Today is the last day of pre-season as the Mayer Mathletes play the Rambach Ramblers. Opening Day is slated to begin tomorrow. All teams should then have a minimum of 8 players in the field, 2 of which need to be girls, or risk forfeit.

 Guess the mass of the pumpkin! If your guess is the closest to the actual mass of the big, beautiful pumpkin in the library, you will get to take it home before Halloween. There is a form for submitting your best guess on MySchool (one entry per student). Just to make things a little trickier, your guess must be in kilograms!

Yesterday's first round of the 8th-Grade Story Slam saw competitors read their best fiction for a chance to be the 2nd Annual Story Slam Champ. The three 2018 finalists, who were selected by their peers are Sage Melton, Emma Brown, and Peyton Kelley. They will read their stories on mic to an audience of students tomorrow at lunch, and the audience will be invited to vote for the winner. Everyone who comes to the theatre the first five minutes of lunch is invited to attend and vote in the Story Slam. Listeners must stay for all three stories to select the winner, so bring your lunch to this exciting competition. Thank you to everyone who participated.

 Attention Future Scientists and Tech Wizards. We are looking for 30 students who are interested in attending Discover Day at the Naval Post Graduate this Friday from 8:00ish to noon. If you'd like to experience combat robotics, 3D printing, lasers, guest speakers on military awareness, local history, social science experiments and a lot more, see Mr.Stadille in S3 for a permission slip. The deadline is TOMORROW, and we can only take 30 students, so don't delay!!
