Calling all comedians! Do you do an amazing impression of a CMS teacher? Can you "Bonjourn!" like Ms. Hunter, imitate Mr. Stadille hunting for spiders, or "Class Class!" even better than Mr. Woodward? We want to film student impressions for a hilarious video. Work on your impressions this week, gather any props you need, and then come to the Maker Space tomorrow at lunch to be filmed.

Thank you to everyone who participated in the Chinese New Year celebration at lunchtime yesterday. The winners for the hacky sack competition were Merrick Bejonghe, who came in first with six hits, Ryder Scheid, who came in second with five hits, and Jason Baker, Jacoby Scattini, and Jacob Rodriguez, each of which got four hits and tied for third place. The chopstick competition was a close match with champion Emma Heiser picking up fifteen beans and McCartney Hong coming in second with thirteen beans. Third place was a four-way tie with Shayla Dutta, Talia Linnevers, Kailey Bevard, and Emma Shin each picking up eight beans. If your name was mentioned as one of these winners, come to the Chinese classroom, C4, today at lunch to claim your prize. A huge thanks to all of the teachers, leadership students, and Chinese students who made this event possible
