Good Morning CMS! Today we will have a modified bell schedule to accommodate our very first CMS Advisory Program. You will attend periods 1 through 4 before having break. Your 4th period teacher will advise you where you are to report after your 15 minute break. After Advisory, where you will spend a period with a teacher or school counselor on a lesson focused on building connections, discovering common interests, and building community; you will have lunch, followed by your last 3 periods of the day.

Thank you to everyone who participated in the Chinese New Year celebrations at lunchtime yesterday. The winners for the hacky sack competition were Jacob Rodriguez; who came in 1st place with 14 hits, Josh Hart came in 2nd with 10 hits, and Justin LeMaster, with 9 hits for 3rd place. Mr. Anderson and Rocky Carr were the dual champions in the chopstick competition with 38 points. 3rd place went to Grant Xu, with 34 points. All winners, please come to the Chinese classroom - C4 at lunch today and claim your prize. A huge thanks to all of the teachers, leadership students, and Chinese students who made yesterday's event possible.

The Final 2 have emerged in the CMS ESports Super Smash Bros Tournament: Congratulations to Nate Conner and Alexander Fredrick for raking through the competition. In order to win it all, Alexander has to defeat Nate twice whereas Nate only has to win once. Will Alexander take it the distance or will Nate win it all? Come witness it in the theater at lunch tomorrow, and find out who will be crowned Super Smash Bros. Season 2 Champion!

Attention All Science Olympians: Please attend our lunchtime meeting today in Mr. Guzzi's room. We have many important items to discuss.

Don't forget that tomorrow night is our Winter in the Tropics Dance. Be sure to pull out your favorite Hawaiian shirts or skirts for the dance and get ready to show off your limbo skills. Don't forget to bring your signed permission slips.

In order to get you ready for the dance, we are having a Hawaiian Spirit Day tomorrow! The fifth-period class sporting the MOST Hawaiian gear tomorrow will receive a treat! Don't forget that your tropical gear must follow the CMS dress code and be school appropriate.

8th graders: Are you interested in finding out more information about the Dance Program and all of the other Visual and Performing Arts classes offered at CHS? Ms. Tarozzi and a few of her students will be in the drama room at lunch today to answer any questions you may have.

WiffleWorld: The Roman Radiators beat the Steely Steering Wheels 4-2 in an exciting game yesterday. Both teams are showing progress. "I just want to see my team hustle and play solid ball," said the Team owner 'Caesar' Roman, during the press conference after the game. The Radiators finish their 2-game road trip today against the Abate Airbags. Tomorrow is Ishler vs Williams.

Nepal News: As of yesterday, the class total winners were: 6th Grade Class- Perlman Period 4 with $382.75, 7th Grade Class- Williams Period 4 with $517.73, and 8th Grade Class- Anderson Period 1 with $337.01. These social studies classes have made enough to send at least one girl to go to school for a year in Nepal (which cost $170): Anderson Period 1, Williams Period 1, Rambach/Sefick Period 1, Krislyn Period 3, Perlman Period 3, Williams Period 4. Great Job! Some of your classes are really close to donating enough for one girl. Remember tomorrow/Friday, January 31st is the last day to Empower Nepali Girls! Thank you to all who have already brought in donations.
