Daily Bulletin

Monday, February 10th, 2020

This week is National Random Acts of Kindness Week. The goal of Random Act of Kindness Week is to change schools, the workplace, families, and society through kindness. Each day we will give you a Random Act of Kindness Challenge that we would like to see you participate in here at CMS. Be sure to listen to the bulletin each day for your challenge. Leadership will also be around during fifth period to check in with all of you to make sure you understand the challenge and to hear any touching stories of how people reacted to your kindness. Here at CMS, we want to Make Kindness Normal. Although the nation is celebrating Random Acts of Kindness Week, we would like to see all of you making this a part of your daily routine! Remember, Kindness is a gift everyone can afford to give.

Today's Kindness Challenge: Tell three of your friends what you appreciate about them.

D&D Club meets this week on Tuesday and Thursday at lunch in Mr. Abate's room (C-11). It's vital that all active members show up each day to keep the campaign running smoothly. Happy gaming!

The Australian Wildfire Fundraiser is in effect. The three jars in the library are for 6th, 7th and 8th grade. If you have any questions, ask Karim or Caden or a friendly librarian.

Want to share your art or writing with others? CMS has a new Literary Magazine Club and is looking for submissions. The magazine wants everything from creative writing to visual art. Go to the school's library page and find the submission form there. All submissions are due by March 20th when our clubs editors will curate the content.

Did you miss the Battle of the Books scrimmage but still want to participate? Stop in the library and let Mrs. Thompson or Mrs. Jeffries know that you still want to play. They will find a team for you if you need one.
