Pi Day falls on a Saturday this year, so the Great Pi Recital will be held on Friday the 13th of March. Last year Elisabeth Hess and Bella Davi both memorized an impressive 222 decimal places of pi to win the annual event. How many will they reach this year? Will we have a new champion? Will the school record of 338 digits be broken? All students are invited to participate. The will be pi prizes and everyone reciting 12 or more digits will be entered in a raffle to win one of our delicious pies.

Tennis Tryouts continue today from 3:00-5:00 p.m. for all grades. Remember, you must be signed up on SportsNet to try out for this sport. Grab your racket and meet the coach on the tennis courts at 3pm! GOOD LUCK COUGARS!

The 7th Grade Wiffle Ball "Tournament of Donuts" Playoff Games started yesterday as the Kuenz Spark Plugs beat the Abate Airbags in Game 1 of their 3-game divisional series. Today's game is Game 1 of the series between the Williams Wipers and Roman Radiators. Scouts say the Radiators are rusty from 2 weeks off, and can be beaten... we shall see!
