Without a doubt, we have the most spirited sixth-graders at Carmel Middle School. At the end of the 2019-20 school year, we invited the incoming sixth graders to participate in the CMS Shelter in Place Family Spirit Week Competition, and they dominated that competition. Now, they once again have proved their dedication to school spirit, because the sixth graders won the CMS Zoom Spirit Week Competition by a landslide. Miss Little's CORE class deserves a special shout out because her first-period class had almost 100% participation each day. Our seventh graders and eighth graders were neck and neck for the second place position, but in the end, the seventh graders have been given the honor of knowing they came in second place. Thank you to all teachers, staff members, and students who participated in our spirit days.

For those of you who uploaded a selfie for each day of the competition, we have one winner per grade level. After pulling participants' names out of a hat, here are the individual spirit winners:

6th Grade: Charlotte Lawson

7th Grade: Merielle Flagg

8th Grade: Brianna Sciuto

CMS Staff Member: Ms. Magreta
