CMS is on day three of pledging to live a healthy lifestyle by being drug and alcohol free. Red Ribbon Week continues today with all of us Blacking Out Drugs by wearing as much black clothing as possible. The leaderboard remains the same for our sixth and seventh graders. However, yesterday the roles were switched. Miss Little's class had 100% participation with her awesome Rockstars, and Ms. Williams's class sixteen of her seventh graders dressed up. As for the eighth graders, Ms. Hunter's first period rocked the competition with their spirit. We shall see if the leaderboard changes today. Please do not forget to check out all of the details regarding Red Ribbon Week on our CMS Website and the Chromebook Homepage. Here are the remaining pledge days:

TODAY, October 28th: Blackout Drugs (Wear lots of black clothing)

TOMORROW, October 29th: CMS is Proud to be Drug-Free (CMS Cougar Pride Day - Wear Carmel Gear or as much RED as possible)

Friday, October 30th: Scare Away Drugs (Wear Halloween Costumes)

Inktober's Word of the Day is "FLOAT" Today's zoom meeting will be held at 2:15. Remember that even if you can't attend the zoom meeting, you can still post your artwork and interact on the daily Padlets. REMEMBER, it's never too late to join and participate. If you are still unsure on how Inktober works please join the google classroom using the code odfzspk and watch the posted video. See you and/or your artwork tomorrow!

Attention 7th & 8th graders: As we begin the second quarter, please note that if you are interested in applying for CJSF (the California Junior Scholarship Federation) your second quarter final grades will be used for acceptance into this program. If you pride yourself on scholastic achievement and community service, please consider joining CJSF at the end of quarter two.

"In 1967, the California Junior Scholarship Federation (CJSF) was founded to foster high standards of scholarship, service and citizenship in the middle school/junior high grades. Like CSF, CJSF emphasizes service to the school and the community while encouraging pride in scholastic achievement. In recent years the rapid growth of the California Junior Scholarship Federation (CJSF) has greatly strengthened CSF."
