Attention Cougars: TODAY is our Thursday Cougar Pride Spirit Day! It is exciting to see so much red and Carmel gear roaming the hallways. If you did show your Cougar Pride, be sure to enter into the weekly drawing by snapping a selfie and uploading it to the Google Form available on the Chromebook Homepage. We only had one eighth-grader upload a picture last week, so she became the automatic winner! Remember, everyone who is showing spirit on campus or through distance learning is eligible to win a gift card to Sweet Reba's Bakery!

Students: If you arrive to school after the 8:10 tardy bell, you'll need to sign in at the office. Your teacher will not admit you to class without a health screening and green late slip.

Wiffle World Highlights: Game 3 of the 6th grade tournament featured quite a battle. Runners were on base every inning but nobody could break through. In the end, the Little Locusts avoided the sharp sting of the Murder Wasps and squeaked out a 2-1 victory in a closely played match that had fans on the edge of their seats. Today's game features the battle for Math supremacy with the Mayer Town Mosquitos against the Whitford City Wasps.

In 7th grade wiffleball action, LooselyShore Lobster's boiled the Williams Williamsburg Gig-Wig Wings 9-2 with big bats from Liam Riddolls and Michael Cohen, despite some furious bubble making from Coach Williams. For the second day in a row, the teams kept Whiffler's Park litter free and looking great! Today has the Rambach Roasted Raccoon Radishes vs the RomanEmpire Ratatouille.

Game three of the 8th grade tournament featured a historic battle (pun intended) between Carr and Anderson - two teachers who like old stuff. Both teams flashed some defensive talent and strong hitting early on but eventually the Anderson City Anchovies sent the Carr Coyotes back to Colorado in convincing fashion with an 8-3 victory. The Anchovies looked particularly strong, combining some stellar defensive plays with line drives sprayed all over the park. Coach Scott Anderson stated after the big win, "We're a hungry group this year and anyone who thinks we can't contend has a big surprise coming!" Hungry for donuts! Today's game pits the Mayer City Big Foots against the Hunter Hollywood Hippos. No games tomorrow due to prior network commitments. Games will resume on Monday. See you at the park!

Today is Day Four of Teacher and Staff Appreciation Week! Teachers and staff members have been incredibly touched by the special treats and kind words that many of you have expressed throughout the week. Keep those compliments coming! Remember that we want to support our CMS Superheroes by dressing up tomorrow in our favorite school appropriate Superhero gear. Go Cougars!

Happy Birthday to: Riley Kirsch!!
