As Red Ribbon Week continues, so does the CMS pledge to live a healthy lifestyle. We are so impressed with how many of you Blacked out Drugs yesterday by wearing lots of black clothing. In fact, we had five fifth period classes that all had 100% participation! Thank you to Mr. Silva's, Mrs. Brophy's, Ms. Olin's, Ms. Sommer's, and Mrs. Wells's classes! We appreciate your dedication to the Red Ribbon pledge. We hope you continue to show your CMS Cougar Pride tomorrow and continue to pledge to be drug and alcohol free. Here are the rest of the dress-up days:

Tomorrow: CMS is Proud to Be Drug Free! Wear RED or CMS Gear!

Attention ALL Leadership Students: Please report to the theater as soon as the bell rings after the morning break.

Also, there will be costume contests with great prizes! Your parents will receive all of the details via Parent Square, and you will receive a permission form in your 7th period classes TODAY that MUST be signed and brought to the dance in order to attend. We hope to see you there!

The big pumpkin in the library could be YOURS if you have the closest guess to the actual mass. Entries need to be submitted by tomorrow at noon.

WiffleNews: The Williamsburg WaterPumps, on a clutch 3-run bomb by Allen "Eagle" Klingel late in the game, tied the score against the Loosliana LugNuts. The Nuts had some late heroics as well when Alex "Hershey" Hirshfield lifted the squad off the mat with a late, game-tying homerun. As darkness fell, the game remained tied. The game will resume today in extra innings with a 5-5 tie. The winner will face GriffinCity in a 3-game playoff.

Happy Birthday to: Rowan Donovan and Eda Karavelioglu!!
